

Wars & Rumors of Wars

Jesus said, “And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.” – Matthew 24:6

According to the Book of Genesis and the Book of Enoch, warfare has been around for thousands of years. It originated from evil inter-dimensional spiritual beings. Christians call them fallen angels. Other cultures call them aliens, space visitors or shape shifters. The Bible says that they left their assigned domain in heaven, came into our world and took wives who then gave birth to hybrid offspring. The first generation of these hybrids were evil giants/titans and ruled the earth. They lived before the great global flood of Noah's time. Their fathers taught how to make weapons, kill and fight wars. For the sake of future generations, they recorded their techniques and dark secret knowledge. They probably built worship centers like Stonehenge and Baalbeck, which had huge stones as part of their structures, to offer human sacrifices to their gods, the fallen angels, who gave them temporal wealth and power in return.

Although God destroyed all the world except Noah and his family and the animals they took on the ark around 2350BC, more fallen angels came into our world and mated with women and produced giants/titans who were well known in many cultures. People today often speak of their biographies as “mythology”, but many of the writings and oral traditions are probably true. Many were killed or driven away by the Jewish people, who used to worship the one true God, Jehovah, a.k.a., Jesus. Nevertheless, many of the titans' temples and pyramids remain until today, illustrating their advanced technology. Over time, as the titans interbred with normal humans, the size of their offspring was mostly reduced to the same size as that of normal humans, but they retain a high level of intelligence and hearts bent on controlling the world through various means of warfare.

After World War 2, it became apparent that a global nuclear war was something to be avoided, so nations instead embarked on quiet and secret means of waging warfare, especially since TV makes it possible to watch traditional warfare. As the ancient general Sun Tzu said, all warfare is based on deception, and technology makes the degree of deception great today. Below are some of the methods of warfare used today. Some are obvious to the public, but others are less obvious and sometimes very secret. At the end is a brief explanation of the way to have real peace.

Currency wars When central banks do not use a gold standard and instead endorse “fiat” money as legal tender, they are able to easily control the nation's wealth, debase their currencies and quietly steal wealth from common people. At the same time, governments use their currencies as means of impacting trade partners and enemies. Eventually, all fiat currencies become worthless and are replaced by something else. Today, we can see this happening to the US dollar and many currencies.

Cyber wars Due to the spread of the Internet, many developed countries have become dependent upon the Internet for communication and commerce. Thus, some nations have studied the flow of information and have learned how to attack the infrastructure and develop capabilities of inflicting harm to businesses and government organizations. Due to embarrassment and security reasons, many cyber attacks go unreported to the public. Many tactics are unused but are ready to be deployed when the time is auspicious.

Biological wars Some governments have developed viruses that are harmful or deadly to humans. These can be used against their own people or other nations to accomplish various goals related to control, dominance or implementation of new laws. Many are developed in the US.

Weather wars According to the Air University of the US Air Force, AF 2025 Final Report, “Weather-modification offers the war fighter a wide-range of possible options to defeat or coerce an adversary... In the United States, ... weather-modification will likely become a part of national security policy with both domestic and international applications ... Our government will pursue such a policy, depending on its interest, at various levels.” According to Zbigniew Brzezinski, in his 1992 book, Between Two Ages, “Technology will make available, to the leaders of major nations, techniques ... for conducting secret warfare, of which only a bare minimum of the security forces need be appraised... Techniques of weather modification could be employed to produce prolonged periods of drought or storm.”

Information wars For almost 100 years, powerful elite have controlled mainstream media in the US and many western countries. As a result, news and other programs have become sophisticated tools for the elite and governments to shape public opinion and keep people from noticing their real agenda. This is information warfare, and it includes numerous deceptive and manipulative tactics. When people speak the truth and/or expose the media's lies and deceit, the initial strategy is often to ridicule them. If that is not effective, another common tactic is to buy them out. If that is not effective, threats or staged suicide or accidents may be employed.

World wars Albert Pike, a 33rd degree freemason, a follower of Satan and one of the early leaders of the Illuminati, purportedly received a vision about three world wars, which he described in a letter that he wrote to Mazzini, dated August 15, 1871. The First World War was designed to overthrow the power of the Czars in Russia and of make that country a fortress of atheistic Communism. That is what actually happened 46 years later. The Second World War was designed to make political Zionism strong enough to institute a sovereign state of Israel in Palestine and make international communism strong enough to balance Christendom, which would be then restrained until the next world war. This is what actually happened after WW2. The third world war will then be designed to make Christians and Jews fight Muslims until they mutually destroy each other so that the world will be tired of war and will desire to follow Lucifer and his world leader.

False peace, real peace Although most people want peace, there can be no lasting peace in the world as long as sin and Satan rule. Satan knows this, so he will first cause World War 3, so millions of people die. Then, he will empower a world leader who will rise up and promise peace to the world if the world follows him. He will appear to be good, but he will deceive the world. After a brief time of peace he will require that all people worship him. God will miraculously protect those who resist this evil man, although some will be killed. In the end, Jesus Christ will return with His angels and defeat Satan, this man, the fallen angels and the people they control. Then, all wars will end.

Today, although various wars rage on, individuals can have peace in their hearts. Real peace is available for those who trust in Jesus Christ. He is the Son of God, and He became a man 2000 years ago to become a mediator between God the Father and the rest of mankind. He never sinned. Instead, He healed the sick, cast out demons, rose the dead and taught people how to live as God wants. He voluntarily died on a cross to save everyone who trusts in Him, and then He rose from the dead and appeared to 500 of His followers.

The Bible says that Jesus is a safe place in the day of trouble. He opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble. He said to His disciples, "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world gives, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." (John 14:27) You can be His disciple too. Here's how:

How to become Jesus' disciple and have inner peace

- Admit that you are a sinner and have disobeyed God – Romans 3:10,23
- Repent of all known sins against God or man – Mark 1:15
- Believe that Jesus died on the cross and that He rose again according to the Scriptures – Jn. 5:24
- Accept Jesus' payment on the cross for the penalty of YOUR sins – I Peter 3:18
- Receive God's free gift of salvation through faith – John 1:12, Romans 4:3-5
- Abide in Jesus daily by praying, reading the Bible and listening to Him speak through the Bible. – John 15

Further suggestions to prepare for difficult times

- In case of a catastrophic event, store some extra food, water and supplies at home.
- In case the USD and the derivatives bubble crashes, if you have any savings move it out of banks and into real assets, like silver and gold or items that can be stored at home and bartered. RMB might be good too.
- Follow alternative media to learn about important news. For some good links, see <http://somehelpful.info/News/> or <http://www.stevequayle.com/> or <http://www.standeyo.com/>.
- Learn to recognize mainstream media's false and misleading reports
- Learn about your enemy the devil, his tricks and his servants (fallen angels, the Illuminati, etc.)
